Data Privacy Policy

About this Policy

1.1 This policy explains when and why we collect personal information about our members and coaches, how we use it and how we keep it secure and your rights in relation to it

1.2 We may collect, use and store your personal data, as described in this Data Processing Policy and as described when we collect data from you

1.3 We reserve the right to amend this Data Processing Policy from time to time and will notify you of any significant changes, giving you the opportunity to 'opt-out' if you so desire. You are advised to check our website and the Club notice board regularly for any amendments (but amendments will not be made retrospectively)

1.4 We will always comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) when dealing with your personal data. For the purposes of the GDPR, we will be the "controller" of all personal data we hold about you

How we protect your personal data

1.6 We will not transfer your personal data outside the EEA without your consent.

1.7 We have implemented generally acceptable standards of technology and operational security in order to protect personal data from loss, misuse, or unauthorised alteration or destruction. Please note however that where you are transmitting information to us over the internet this can never be guaranteed as 100% secure

1.8 For any payments which we take from you online we will use a recognised online secure payment system

1.9 We will notify you promptly in the event of any breach of your personal data which might expose you to serious risk.

Who else has access to the information you provide us?

1.11 We will never sell your personal data. We will not share your personal data with any third parties without your prior consent (which you are free to withhold) except where required to do so by law or as set out in the table above or paragraph 1.12 below

1.12 We may pass your personal data to third parties who are service providers, agents or National Governing Bodies (FA and ECB for example) for the purposes of completing tasks and providing services to you on our behalf (e.g. to maintain league registrations and player records). However, we disclose only the personal data that is necessary for the third party to deliver the service and we have a contract in place that requires them to keep your information secure and not to use it for their own purposes.

How long do we keep your information?

1.13 We will hold your personal data on our systems for as long as you are a member of the Club and for as long afterwards as is necessary to comply with our legal obligations. We will review your personal data every year to establish whether we are still entitled to process it. If we decide that we are not entitled to do so, we will stop processing your personal data except that we will retain your personal data in an archived form in order to be able to comply with future legal obligations e.g. Playing records.

1.14 We securely destroy all personal data and financial information once we have used it and no longer need it.

Your Rights

1.15 You have the rights under GDPR:

a) To access your personal data

- b) To be provided with information about how your personal data is processed
- c) To have your personal data corrected
- d) To have your personal data erased in certain circumstances
- e) To object to or restrict how your personal data is processed
- f) To have your personal data transferred to yourself or to another business in certain circumstances
